Qu'est-ce que le mode d'action d'une insuline?

On distingue deux grands types d'insuline qui se différencient par leur mode d'action:

Les insulines lentes qui agissent tout au long de la journée et de la nuit et que l'on injecte 1 à 2 fois par jour. (p. ex. LantusMD, BasaglarMC, TresibaMD, etc.)

Il n'y a pas d'insuline lente dans une pompe à insuline. Celle-ci est remplacée par la perfusion de microdoses d'insuline rapide 24 h sur 24, appelée « débit basal ».

EXPERTS DANS NOTRE DOMAINE

Depuis notre création, nous n'avons cessé de développer notre expertise en distribution de matériel de surveillance. Aujourd'hui, nous sommes fiers de soutenir plus de 1,200 détaillants en leur permettant d'optimiser leur offre et de se positionner sur le marché. Grâce à de solides partenariats, nous continuons de grandir et d'œuvrer à une juste concurrence dans l'industrie de l'alarme.

2013

L'entreprise est enregistrée

Le nom NBG Telecom est officiellement déposé, ouvrant la porte à de futures activités.

2019

NBG Telecom est officiellement créée

NBG lance ses activités et commercialise son premier produit : un communicateur universel cellulaire.

Avant cela, travailler avec cet outil au Canada n'était pas sécurisé. Nous avons rendu cela possible en collaboration avec notre maison mère, Lanvac Surveillance.

2020

Le site officiel de l'entreprise est mis en ligne

Le site nbgtele.com est créé, facilitant la gestion des commandes pour les revendeurs d'alarmes. La plateforme leur permet notamment de calculer automatiquement les frais d'expédition et de suivre les plans de données de leurs cartes SIM.

Cette année marque également l'arrivée de nouveaux produits dans notre catalogue.

2022

Une croissance exponentielle

En à peine deux ans, les ventes de NBG ont connu une augmentation significative grâce à de solides partenariats conclus avec:

- NSI Distribution, APA et Inaxsys : plusieurs de leurs produits sont désormais vendus avec une carte SIM NBG.
- Bosch, GSD et Mobiak : nous distribuons plusieurs gammes de leurs produits.

Looking for a new partner to renew our web presence, I followed the advice of a friend who had led me to Nara Creative. She was right to do so.

From the very first contact, Nara's team guided me in a very professional and efficient manner. Just what I'd been looking for. The specialists put a lot of effort into understanding our business model and skills, which target customers on at least two different continents.

The cooperation was always very understanding, and the content creation took a load off my mind. I was very impressed by the result, and by the creativity and courage to try something new.
